

DAISEY Implementation at a Glance

Access DAISEY:
<https://daisey.cete.us>

Contact Information

For DAISEY system support, technical assistance, and to create and manage user accounts: DAISEY KDHE Support at Daisey.kdhe@ku.edu

For implementation support: Randi Harms, Initiative Lead at Randiharms@ku.edu

For program support including questions related to data elements and reporting requirements: Aid to Local Program Contact OR general KDHE Bureau of Family Health email at bfhadmin@kdheks.gov

Roles and Responsibilities

- KDHE identifies all reporting requirements and provides reporting guidance to grantee organizations.

- KDHE is responsible for securing the necessary data reporting systems Terms of Use agreements with each grantee organization.

- KU-CPPR is responsible for ensuring HIPAA/FERPA compliance with regard to security of all data entered into DAISEY.

- Grantee organizations are responsible for ensuring all required data is entered into DAISEY by the 10th of each month. Refer to the Aid to Local requirements for more detail.

- Grantee organizations are responsible for ensuring compliance with client notification/authorization and DAISEY user agreements.

Rollout

October

November

December

January

Pilot -- Geary County & Becoming a Mom Programs
 Program-Specific Training Webinars
 DAISEY User Training Webinars

Statewide Launch

Training and User Access

User Access

- Determine appropriate level of access for each user;
- Send request to Daisey.kdhe@ku.edu using template with scanned signed User Confidentiality Agreements;
- Users participate in training via webinar or by viewing webinars and video tutorials; access DAISEY User Manual for additional instruction.

Training Opportunities and Resources

Program Specific Webinars

DAISEY User Training Webinars

DAISEY Video Tutorials

User Confidentiality Agreement

DAISEY User Manual

Additional information and resources: DAISEYSolutions.org/KDHE